WAIVER OF LIABILITY:

I understand Scottsdale Artists' School (instructors and staff) are acting only as agents and shall not be responsible or liable for any injury/ accident/ illness which may occur on site or within the duration of class time. Please be aware that we must be able to reach you in the case of an emergency, or if your child becomes ill during the day. All classes will be conducted with utmost care in a safe learning environment. Students are expected to follow current safety protocols and student code of conduct agreement.

Parents/guardians are responsible for informing the School of any medical conditions, disabilities, behavioral needs, allergies, or other circumstances that may affect their child's participation. If a participant requires individualized supervision or support in order to participate safely or successfully, a parent/guardian may be required to provide a qualified aide at their own expense. The School reserves the right to determine whether it can safely and appropriately meet a participant's needs within the structure of its programs.

Please arrange to drop off and pick up your child on time. Notify instructor if early pickup is needed or call/visit the front desk for an early pickup pass. No child will be released early without proper authorization from the parent/ guardian in advance. For their safety, every child must be signed in and out each day.

PHOTOGRAPH PERMISSION: I hereby give my consent to use any of the photographs taken of this student and artwork created in class for class use, class history and class promotion. I do hereby release Scottsdale Artists' School from any claim whatsoever that may arise in said regard. YES _____ NO _____

Approved medicine will be dispensed to students according to these guidelines.

- The parent/guardian should complete and sign the Medication Authorization Form and give to instructor on the first day of class. Medicine cannot be given without written permission and instruction from the parent/guardian.
- The parent/guardian should bring medicine to instructor (or give instruction for student use on this form.)
- All prescription and over-the-counter medicine will be collected by instructor and stored at the front desk (with a copy of waiver attached) unless otherwise instructed.
- Prescription medicine must be in original labeled container. The label must include the student's name, the name of the medicine, instructions for dispensing the medicine, and the doctor's name. Pharmacists can provide a duplicate labeled container with only the dosage to be given at the school.
- Over-the-counter medicine must be in the original container and marked with the student's name.
- A new Medication Authorization Form must be completed whenever a new medicine or dosage is to be given to the student.
- The parent/guardian should pick up unused medicine from the instructor. Any medicine not picked up at the end of the summer will be discarded.

I understand the guidelines for dispensing medicine to students during school hours. I authorize medicine to be dispensed to my child according to the directions given above. In the case that medicine is to be held or administered by student, I have given complete instruction and information to instructor.

SCOTTSDALE ARTISTS' SCHOOL STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT AGREEMENT

SAS is committed to providing a safe and welcoming environment for all students and staff. To promote safety and comfort for all, participants are required to act appropriately when on our premises or participating in SAS camps, workshops or programs. Students who are sick are asked to stay home.

SAS students are expected to comply with all current safety precautions and protocols, as well as any rules and procedures communicated by staff or teaching artists. These include but are not limited to:

- Students must always follow the direction of their instructor.
- Respect for the studio, teacher, fellow students, artwork created by self or others is expected.
- Inappropriate language/conversation is not allowed in the classroom.
- Inappropriate clothing of any kind is not allowed: too short, saggy, distasteful images, tight or revealing in any way will not be allowed.
- SAS is a fragrance-free facility to protect the health of students and staff.
- Cell phones must be off and stored during class times. Electronic devices are not permitted.
- SAS has zero tolerance for unsafe and uncooperative behavior such as disrupting, harassing, physical contact, hitting, ridiculing, name-calling.

SAS reserves the right to withdraw privilege of an individual's use of the facilities, studios, and virtual studios at any time, in the sole judgment of SAS, due to the unsafe, disruptive, uncooperative, negligent, reckless, or otherwise improper acts or violation of any policy or rule of SAS. Protocols for discipline issues:

- Verbal Warning(s) by Instructor
- Time-Out by Instructor in Studio
- Youth Academy Director Office - Time-Out; parents will be informed at pick-up time.
- Student removed from class for day. Youth Academy Director will call the parents for pick-up.
- Youth Academy Director will set up a meeting to determine eligibility of student returning and may withdraw privilege of student to return to camp.

Note for Spring or Summer Camp: Parents must accompany the student to the classroom and sign in at the beginning and out at the end of day. Parents must notify the front desk at 480-990-1422 if they will be picking up student early. Students will not be released from the classroom during the day without the front desk or Youth Director being notified.

Special Needs and Support Services Disclaimer: Scottsdale Artists' School's youth programs are designed for general art instruction and do not provide specialized educational, medical, behavioral, therapeutic, or one-on-one support services. The School does not offer Exceptional Student Education (ESE) services or individualized accommodations beyond those reasonably available within a group instructional setting.

Parents/guardians are responsible for informing the School of any medical conditions, disabilities, behavioral needs, allergies, or other circumstances that may affect their child's participation. If a participant requires individualized supervision or support in order to participate safely or successfully, a parent/guardian may be required to provide a qualified aide at their own expense. The School reserves the right to determine whether it can safely and appropriately meet a participant's needs within the structure of its programs.

By signing below, I agree to abide by all these terms while on our premises or participating in our programs.

SAS FINE ART CAMP - FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

PLEASE NOTE: Students will NOT be allowed to attend workshops without a current Medical Authorization Form and Waiver of Liability. These forms are available online and must be turned in before or on the first day of the session.

How early can I drop my child off at the school?

Children may be dropped off no earlier than 8:50 am. (9:05 for high school). Studios are closed until then. Early Bird Classes are offered if you need to drop off your child sooner. Extended day is available for most days for a small fee, see front desk for info.

What if a student needs to be dropped off late or picked up early?

- Parents must notify front desk at 480-990-1422 if they will be picking up student early. Students will not be released from the classroom during the day without the front desk or Youth Director being notified.
- Please make arrangements for timely pickup of your child. Call the front desk at 480-990-1422 if you are running late. Extended day is available for most days for a small fee, see front desk for info.

Will students need to bring a sack lunch?

YES, students are required to bring their own lunch with an ice pack, a healthy snack and a bottle of water. There are no fridge, microwaves, or vending machines available to campers. Please remind students that we do not allow sharing or exchanging of lunch or snack items (others may have allergies).

Are students allowed to bring cupcakes, cakes, or other treats for the class?

NO, please do not bring treats for the class; some students may have allergies to certain food items.

Will the students need to bring art supplies?

NO, all supplies are included with registration! ☺

Do parents need to sign students in and out each day?

YES, parents are required to sign in students at the beginning of the day & sign out students when picked up.

Is there a dress code?

YES, Please …NO flip-flops or loose sandals. Closed toe shoes are preferred. Students should dress for participation in studio art; they may get messy with paint, clay, charcoal, and other art mediums.

What if a student has never taken an art class before?

No Problem! The program is designed to build confidence and teach art techniques to all skill levels.

Will students be given breaks?

YES, there will be several short, energizing and inspiring breaks including a snack break and lunch break.

Is there a classroom management program?

YES, all students must read and sign SAS Student Code of Conduct in order to create and maintain a fun learning atmosphere that inspires students' creativity.

Who can parents call with questions?

Parents are welcome to call the front desk with any questions 480-990-1422, or

Youth & Outreach Director, Sandra Zally, at 480-584-6301. Email at szally@scottsdaleartschool.org
